CPAA Membership Renewals

Group, Individual and Student member renewal invoices were issued the first week of January 2023 and are due February 28, 2023.

For Group memberships ($250.00) the invoices are emailed to the person that has been identified as the contact person on the application form, or subsequent information received by the CPAA office. Cheques, e transfers, direct deposit payments and online payments with credit cards are accepted.

If you have any questions regarding membership, please contact Hilary Janzen, CPAA Chair of Membership and Nominations at hjanzen@lethcounty.ca. Contact Vicki Hackl, CPAA Secretary cpaa@cpaa.biz, with updates to your contact information.

CPAA's Community Achievement Award

We take the time to formally recognize the outstanding work and successes of our members with a Community Achievement Award awarded annually.

Community Planning Association of Alberta members are focused on multiple ways of improving the quality of life in their local areas. Communities across Alberta have undertaken and are currently involved in a wide range of community-based projects to address community safety, health, local services and social and economic opportunities.

This award is intended to recognize, celebrate, and share the success and hard work of an individual, team, or organization whose creative ideas and work has positively contributed to community building and well being anywhere in Alberta.

The inaugural award winner will be formally announced and presented with a plaque recognizing their achievements at the May 1-3 CPAA 2023 Conference and will be featured in CPAA publications.

Nominators and winners must be CPAA members in good standing.

If you are interested in nominating a successful project or submitting a project you were involved in, click on the following for complete information and submission requirements.

Award Forms and Information

If you have any questions please email the CPAA office at cpaa@cpaa.biz.

2023 CPAA Sponsorship Program

The CPAA provides a forum for all stakeholders in planning and development – including elected officials, administrators, planners, academics and students, and private industry – to discuss community planning-related concepts, ideas, issues, and solutions.

The annual CPAA conference brings these diverse perspectives from across Alberta together.

We are seeking new and continued participation from municipalities and the private sector, to consider sponsorship, funding, or in-kind contributions. Conference sponsorship provides numerous benefits, including:

- Name recognition in front of ~200 elected officials, administrators, and private industry delegates from across Alberta.
- Networking, outreach, and employment opportunities.
- Showcasing your organization as a supporter of community planning and education in Alberta.
- Free or discounted events, including conference registrations, luncheons, banquets, booths, etc (depending on the sponsorship level).

All sponsorship funding received will be used to support conference activities and to support annual scholarships awarded by CPAA to post-secondary planning students.

Should you have any questions regarding sponsorship, please contact the Chair of the 2023 Conference Committee, Geoff Tiffin, 403-794-2311 tiffing@newellmail.ca

Thank you in advance for your consideration. We look forward to your participation and support in 2023!
