Important Reminder to Nominate a Project for CPAA's 2nd Annual Community Achievement Award – Deadline March 17

The CPAA is recognizing the outstanding work and successes of our members communities with the 2nd annual Community Achievement Award! Share your successes with us by nominating a project that will make your community a better place!

This award was first given at last year's CPAA Conference and intended to recognize, celebrate, and share the success and hard work of an individual, team, or organization whose creative ideas and work has positively contributed to community building and well being anywhere in Alberta.

The only requirement to receive the award and nominate a project for an Award is that you or the organization must be a member of CPAA. If you are not a member and wish to make a submission, simply become a member by contacting CPAA.

The award winner will be announced and presented with a plaque recognizing their achievements at the CPAA 2023 Conference being held on May 1-3. The award winner will also be featured in CPAA publications.

Find out more about nominating a project on the CPAA website: Community Achievement Award | CPA Alberta

Community Achievement Award submissions must be received by the CPAA Office via email to cpaa@cpaa.biz by 4:00 pm, March 17, 2023.

Award questions can be directed to Mary-Ellen Tyler, CPAA Chair of the Scholarship and Awards Committee at tyler@ucalgary.ca

Membership

Membership questions can be directed to Hilary Janzen, CPAA Chair of Membership and Nominations at hjanzen@lethcounty.ca
