Alberta WINTER
2017

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

This is our abbreviated version of the Alberta Planning Exchange, to demonstrate why you need to register for our annual Education Session and Conference. It will again be held in Red Deer, at the Black Knight Inn on May 1-3, 2017!

Our conference theme is: "RE/FRAMING THE FUTURE" How Communities Can Transition Obstacles in to Opportunities?"

The Education Sessions will kick-start your day with a morning spent with learning further information on the new "Modernization of the Municipal Government Act" presented by Brownlee LPP.

Our intent, as always, is to bring new tips and tools for you to use in your planning decisions.

Networking opportunities with existing friends, new friends and students is another of our great offerings. CPAA has met with students from the University of Alberta, University of Calgary, and University of Lethbridge to tell them about our great Association. We encourage delegates to introduce themselves and to enjoy the student participation throughout the conference. They are our next generation of planners.

I look forward to seeing you all this spring in Red Deer.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OPPORTUNITIES

CPAA is accepting nominations to fill current vacancies with individuals who are committed to excellence and have a passion for community planning. An even distribution for both geographical and elected vs. non-elected members is preferred. Elections take place at the Annual General Meeting on Tuesday, May 2 at the conference luncheon. For more information interested members may contact the CPAA office prior to the conference at cpaa@cpaa.biz.

Regards,

Tom Burton, CPAA Chair

2017 CONFERENCE “RE/FRAMING THE FUTURE”

Monday, May 01 to Wednesday, May 03, 2017

Red Deer, Alberta

A message from the Committee Chair

Candace Banack RPP, MCIP

This year's Conference theme: "Re/Framing the Future: How Communities can Transition Obstacles into Opportunities" will showcase both municipalities that have successfully overcome obstacles and transformed them into opportunities, and groups that have developed unconventional solutions to solve issues. We will examine how practices have shifted over time and what impact this has had, or will continue to have into the future.

Some of the obstacles that will be discussed are emerging issues, while others may be long standing, however we will be looking at new ways for communities to transition them into opportunities.

This is a great opportunity to hear from experts and share ideas with colleagues from across Alberta and Western Canada. As always, CPAA is grateful for the contributions of our sponsors and their generosity that helps ensure the Alberta Planning Conference continues to be a great success!

2017 CPAA Education Session - Planning Law - MGA Review & Marijuana Legalization

Monday May 1 – Education Session – Hot Buffet Breakfast starts at 8:00am

Session starts at 9:00am and a lunch buffet is included at 12:15pm

Brownlee LLP – Charlotte St. Dennis

9:00 am – 10:40 am The latest on the MGA Amendments and Regulations

Potential topics and updates include: Inclusionary Housing, changes to Off Site Levies, and the Inter-municipal Collaboration Frameworks (ICFs)

Volunteer: Nomination Call for Directors

Volunteering provides members with a unique opportunity to contribute to the CPAA and the profession, while broadening their professional networks.

CPAA is accepting nominations from individuals who are committed to excellence and have a passion for community planning. An even distribution for both geographical and elected vs. non-elected members is preferred. Elections take place at the Annual General Meeting on Tuesday at the conference luncheon. Please contact the CPAA office prior to the conference to apply for these exciting and challenging volunteer roles by submitting a brief expression of interest to cpaa@cpaa.biz which summarizes your interest and suitability for the role.

Become a CPAA Member

Our membership represents those involved in municipal planning, including Councillors, administrators, development officers, professional planners (both private and public sector), academics, and provincial officials. This membership will enable your organization to share your experiences, achievements and challenges, and empower municipal decision-makers and the corporate world to work towards collaborative, community-minded planning solutions.

Your membership with CPAA will provide networking opportunities, quarterly newsletters to keep you apprised of the latest developments in the planning world, current information on our website, and reduced conference fees to our well-attended annual conference.

We offer three membership types: To download our Membership Registration Form, please visit our website: <http://www.cpaa.biz>
